PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, good hospital care is a vital part of the health needs of every community; and

WHEREAS, South Dakota hospitals have established an outstanding record for service and have dedicated themselves to providing excellent hospital care for hospital patients; and

WHEREAS, the continued high quality of hospital care in South Dakota is possible only through the individual citizen who appreciates and supports the hospitals in his community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 10-16, 1953, as

and do urge all South Dakotans to follow the progress of their hospitals and show their appreciation to the hospitals whose program of service and skilled treatment are so important to each of us.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 9th day of May, 1953.
